

IDENTITY & REGISTERED OFFICE PROOF

Requirement to Appoint a Nominee:

- The very purpose of an OPC is so that an individual by him/herself can start a business with limited liability without the need of having a partner. Though the provision of appointing a nominee was introduced with the objective of perpetual succession, this creates a lot of procedural hassle for selecting a suitable nominee, obtaining his consent etc.

Note: Your registered office need not be a commercial space, it can be your residence too.